BISHOP ROBERT BARRON LEARNING THE SHAKA AFTER SPEAKING ABOUT "7 KEYS TO EVANGELIZATION"

Stewards are each called

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus calling Peter, Andrew, James and John to follow him. Following Jesus was difficult journey for these first disciples. It is also difficult for us today. Jesus wants to teach us his way of thinking, acting and encountering the world. But it is not easy for us to embrace his teaching.

Good stewards of Jesus' teachings realize they are on a spiritual journey, and must learn from their experiences of being open and resistant to the Gospel. They realize the need to be liberated from those actions that keep them from enjoying a closer friendship with Jesus.

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to Stewardship. Not everyone is called to leave their business, profession or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. Everything from our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission. What is it in our lives that we need to reform? What keeps us from revealing God's glory to others? Jesus calls us to "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand."

FR. GREG

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT BY THE INTERNATIONAL CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP COUNCIL

January 22, 2017

Today's reading from the Gospel of Luke offers us the first words of Jesus as he begins his public ministry. The words reflect his understanding of his Spirit-anointed mission. His words are his "Mission Statement." Good stewards rejoice in being followers of Jesus. They realize that Jesus' commission is their commission as well. They embrace it and adopt it as their own. We, too, have "glad tidings" to bring to a suffering world. This year, how will we fulfill Christ's commission in the world in which he has placed us, using the gifts he has entrusted to us?
