HOSPITALITY

*We Believe We Encounter
Christ in Ourselves and Every Person We Meet.*

“Behind the scenes with Covid-19 Preparation

... and the prudent measures taken for disinfection and hygiene, just like St. Marianne Cope had done with the patients she cared for on Moloka'i ...

“A word or a smile is often enough to put fresh life in a despondent soul.”

- St. Theresa of the Child Jesus

It's not all work! Our volunteer is enjoying serving the Lord while disinfecting the choir microphones.

Hospitality also involves keeping environment within the Co-Cathedral bright and flowery. Here an usher helps to move the beautiful orchid planters.

In the Sacristy, all areas and religious items are cleaned and disinfected to protect us against this deadly invisible disease.

A volunteer is working hard at wiping down each seat, in this case before use of a special service.

Buckets prepared with disinfectant solution were prepared for this initial Co-Cathedral general cleaning, preparing for our first mass after Mayor Caldwell relaxed the gathering rules for places of worship.

A volunteer first sweeps the floor to get ready for the application of the cleaning and disinfectant solution.

HOSPITALITY

We Believe We Encounter Christ in Ourselves and Every Person We Meet.

GOAL: Sustain and strengthen the welcoming spirit of the school

Hospitality also means the complimentary application of alcohol spray to parishioners hands prior to receiving Holy Communion, following good hygiene practices advocated by the US CDC/EPA.

Volunteers wipe down all the pews that were occupied after each and every mass to ensure a healthy and safe place to worship.
